THE RECTORTOWN SHOOTING CASE. - Persons from the neighborhood of Rectortown give the following particulars of the late shooting affair at that place: On Thursday last a lady being in the store kept by L. E. Wood- down and return. ward, was asked by the latter to settle a bill she owed there. She replied that she had not the required amount at the time, but would trade it out with him, meaning that she would bring him country produce, and thinking from his response that he intended to convey an insult, went home and so informed her brother, B. B. Spicer, who immediately repaired to the village, and meeting Woodward assaulted and beat him. Woodward, as soon as he could get away from Spicer, ran to his home, and getting a pistol, advanced upon Spicer and shot at him, the ball grazing and wounding his forehead. Finding he had not killed him he shot again, and this time N. B. Malone, having gotten within the range of the pistol, was accidentally | ty, Va., vice James C. Robinson, resigned. struck by the ball and killed. Woodward closed his store immediately afterwards, and up to last accounts had not been heard of.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon:

Eliza Pointdexter and Dolly Green, colored, for disorderly conduct at the south end of Fairfax street, were fined and discharged. Charles Bell, charged with robbing Jerry Stokes, of Fairfax county, both colored, was disn issed as no one appeared against him. The above cases were before the Mayor.

John Underwood, for stealing a keg of gun powder from Capt. Christopher Western, was sent to jail by Justice Padgett, for further examination. Doily Green and Eliza Pointdexter, colored, for assaulting each other were dismissed by Justice French upon payment of costs and giving security to keep the peace. EXECUTED HIS OWN WARRANT. - Yesterday morning constable Charles Landstreet, of Mt. Vernon Township, Fairfax county, assisted by special constables Dove and Lloyd, attempted to execute a warrant, issued by Justice Kerby of that township, for the seizure of some cattle belonging to a colored man named Felix Quander, but was successfully resisted by Quauder, his wife, and four children, nearly grown, who, armed with axes, knives, and stones, threatened him and his aids with instant death if they persisted in their attempt. The Justice being informed of the state of the case, hastily mounted his horse, and accompanied by the discomfited officers, rode to Quander's house and took him and his whole family off to Accotink, where they were carried before Justice Troth. and bailed for further examination.

ASSAULTING A WOMAN. - A young woman named Lizzie Scott, who lives with Mr. Sullivan, who is employed by the keeper of the National Cemetery, while on her way home Thursday night, was attacked by an unknown man, who, sitting on the fence of the grave yard, this side of the Soldier's Cemetery, jumped down, as she passed, and saying "God d—n you, I've got you now," ran after her, until her shricks and screams so alarmed him that he left her and hid behind some of the tomb stones near by. The young woman was so alarmed that upon safely reaching her nome successful that upon safely reaching her nome safely reaching her nome safely reaching her nome safely reaching her nome safe

THE CONNECTING LINK.—The Charlottesville Chronicle, in noticing the rumor that either the Virginia Midland or the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad will build a road from Orange Court House to Charlottesville, says: "That this connecting link is to be constructed by somebody is inevitable. Two companies will not use the same road from Gor-donsville to Charlottesville forever, and if the Virginia Midlaud has not the means, or is so and white voters of the city, and was presided hampered by contracts with the Chesapeake over by Hon. The Season.—The Richmond Whig says:

—"We are now entering upon that season of the year which necessitates many changes in both domestic and personal arrangements and habits. Heads of families will be heavily taxed to prople. Resolutions to that effect were adopted to the present board of election commissioners. Speeches were made by M. R. Delaney, colored, E. W. M. Mackey, the leader of the Republican party in this county, Hop. George A. Trenholm, ex-Treasurer of the Confederate States, and others. All the speakers urged a petition to the government first, and if that fails, a resort to the only means left, the people. Resolutions to that effect were adopted and a commissioners. and a committee of seven citizens appointed to wait on Governor Moses with the petition.

Among the subscriptions to the Gazette paid to day was that of a gentleman in the country, whose agent was instructed to pay in advance for another year, at the expiration of which time the subscription would discontinue, as the subscriber would be dead. The same instructions were given last year, but still the old gentleman holds out. There's nothing like the Gazette for a long life.

A milk wagon, seized upon by some urchins during the temporary absence of its owner, and driven about the streets at a furious gait, was taken in possession of by the police yesterday evening and tied up at the station house, where its driver found it at nine o'clock last night, after having walked to his home in the country to look for it, supposing the horse had carried LARGER STOCK, it there. A meeting will be held at the colored Odd Fellows' Hall next Tuesday night, at which, it is stated, speeches will be delivered in favor of the election of Mr. James Barbour to Congress by Postmaster Cochran, of Culpeper C. H.; S. H. Newhouse, of Fauquier; and John Seaton, R. L. Mitchell and R. D. Beckley, colored, of this city.

Some of those who contributed to the expressed wants of the woman with the baby in her arms yesterday-as did the writer of this item -will doubtless be gratified to learn that towards dusk she was seen going up King street under a high state of alcoholic excitement, produced by their liberality.
